Decrepit Birth

Metallic speculum the seventh specere
Mirror of preconception
Heightened expanse of observation
I emerge from within the violet crown

Through time it begins again
An existence of one
Begin the cycle of what is to be
I process the illusion of the dream

Djedi awakens
All points of consciousness
Triad octave division

Isolated from external light
The third eye opens
Awaken the mind
Imprint the program of self
In the instantaneous experience of being

Opening the source code of embryogenesis
And self unity conceived

Isolated from external light
The third eye opens
Awaken the mind
I feel myself being reconceived
Beyond the dimensions of humanity

Infinite points of light come together
Cross within my being
Focused within the spectrum
I see my sol beyond the prism

Divine light of recreation
To be born into time again
Three rivers of life come together
Trikaya
