

The Sacred Geometry

Decrepit Birth

The journey of my heart heart guides me
From the dream-time eclipse of light

Finding my way
I follow the path of light
Into this world unknown
Within my mind

Into the universal pattern
Beyond the expanse of imagination
The pattern takes my soul
To an unknown destination

Bodiless i drift through times
Ancient sea of memories
My consciousness transcends the arch of time
Within the tides of eternities

Spiritual transformation of my souls living energy Perseverance through birth...life...death...rebirth
I achieve the ancient wisdom...understanding

As nothing i am dispersed throughout creation
Beyond the mirrored spectrum of my humanity

Sifting through the light of the living energy...I am nothing Self awareness of my being... I am creation Mysteries unfolds before me...hidden in dimensions

Consciousness...
Eternally bound through alchemies Continuum...
Time...space...matter destined to infinity

Omnipotent...essence of myself in everything
I am one...within the symmetry of the fractal distortion

My being now transcends into the frequencies
Beyond the parallels of the dark horizons of the mind
Into the sacred pattern...the fabric of creation
Into the omnipresent minds of god
I see through Maya's veil of illusion
The light of deception
The human distortion
I enter into the mystic tapestry
The sacred geometry
The secret of the hidden
Truth
