

Transcendental Paradox

Decrepit Birth

My mind opens within the light of life
The sacred path
Shines alive before me
Sri Yantra...I see

Into the secret that has always eluded me
One light into which i'm drawn

Where the ten thousand things are all as one
The light of truth and divinity
Sri Yantra...I see

Standing before me, the number of man
Seven portals into dimensions
Internal paradox, double helix
Seven directions duplicated

Seven gates into the heavenly realm
Seven hells of the heavens mortal sins
Parallel realities / dualities...Two truths together
Internal paradox, double helix

Mirroring existence within
My inward journey of duality
Where dimensions intertwine
The crystal heart matrix within the spectrum

Standing before me, the number of man
Seven portals into dimensions
Internal paradox, double helix
Seven directions duplicated

Origin of the light divine
Looking inward into my soul

The seven hearts of man awaken
My soul looks out beyond creation

Sri Yantra...I see myself in everything
Emerging from the ageless form
All life is sacred

Dilating within the silver halo
Bindu opens itself to me
Origin of the light divine
Looking inward into my soul
