

Anchor Me

Decyfer Down

I, I can feel their eyes upon me waiting for the kill
My walls are crashing down
Now, it's like a battle on a war that never ends
My soul is giving out

Trying to find the right and the wrong,
This world is pulling when from where you are,
From where I belong...

I feel you anchor me
Rise straight through the hurt
I feel you anchor me
When we drift apart
You break me from this spell
You save me from myself
I feel the strength from within
When you anchor me

I, I can feel the current dragging me away from you
My rope is frayed and thin
But you take everything away inside that I can see is pain
And show me home again

Trying to find the right and the wrong,
This world is pulling when from where you are,
From where I belong...

I feel you anchor me
Rise straight through the hurt
I feel you anchor me
When we drift apart
You break me from this spell
You save me from myself
I feel the strength from within
When you anchor me

You anchor me... Yeah, you anchor me...
You bring me to my knees when you rescue me again
(you rescue me again... Oh...)

I feel you anchor me
On my darkest nights
You chase away my fear
And turn on the lights

I feel you anchor me
Rise straight through the hurt
I feel you anchor me
When we drift apart
You break me from this spell
You save me from myself
I feel the strength from within
When you anchor me

You anchor me, you anchor me... When you anchor me... Yeah...
