

Ghost

Ded

Ghost, ghost
Ghost, I know it's you but you're a ghost

Hey, misery
How do you find me all the time when I'm trying to leave?
Walk right through me
Like you were never even here but you're holding the key

The dark is empty, but not for us
We made our home here and burned it up
In my subconscious, I find a clue
That I'm really you

Now you're a ghost, you're gone
You're so far away, it's all lost
Are you floating off? I can't see your face
I know it's you but you're a ghost, ghost
I can see you still in my mind, just a ghost, ghost
I can feel you in the room
I know it's you but you're a ghost

You're haunting me
But at the moment I can't tell if I'm the one who's deceased
I can feel you breathing
Then disappear into a feeling, do you think about me?

The dark is empty but not for us
We made our home here with burning love
I go through boxes to find a clue
That you're really you

Now you're a ghost, you're gone
You're so far away, it's all lost
Are you floating off? I can't see your face
I know it's you but you're a ghost, ghost
I can see you still in my mind, just a ghost, ghost
I can feel you in the room
I know it's you but you're a ghost

I know it's you but you're a
(Ghost, ghost, ghost, ghost)
I know it's you but you're a
I know it's you but you're a
I know it's you but you're a

I know it's you but you're a ghost
I know it's you but you're a
I know you it's you

Now you're a ghost, you're gone
You're so far away, it's all lost
Are you floating off? I can't see your face
I know it's you but you're a ghost, ghost
I can see you still in my mind, just a ghost, ghost
I can feel you in the room
I know it's you but you're a ghost

I know it's you but you're a
I know it's you but you're a
