

Crying for Your Life

Dee Snider

Do you know what you've done?
Do you have a clue?
Don't bother to run
They're coming for you
There's no stalling
You've run out of time
Face the echo
Now you're crying for your life

Oh, yeah
C'mon
You did the crime
Now do the time
You'll be crying for your life

The choice you made brought hell upon you
Your sins are things that you can't undo
You left your mark every step of the way
You were so sure you wouldn't have to pay
Now look in the mirror, what do you see?
Look in the mirror, no ride's for free
You left your mark every step of the way
You were so sure you wouldn't have to pay
Now look in the mirror, what do you see?
Look in the mirror, this ride ain't free
You made your bed and now you'll cry
You'll bear this cross until you die

You did the crime
Now do the time
You'll be crying for your life
No, you can't hide
When you're crying for your life

Your crime you can't deny
All alone, it's your time
No one can help you, you chose a lie
No one will save you, so dry your eyes

You did the crime
Now do the time
You'll be crying for your life
No, you can't hide
When you're crying for your life
Yes, it's your crime
You'll do your time
And you can't hide
You'll be crying for your life
