

I Am the Hurricane

Dee Snider

There is despair coming off your skin
I can smell it when you say my name
You love to gamble but you never win
You've lost it all, the end begins
Your life and death are on in the same
There's nothing left but all your sins

The wind is screaming
It's screaming your name

It sounds like fear
Your death rattle is all that remains
No one will shed a tear

I am a force of nature
Destroy your great design
I am the warning
You will never heed in time

Every whisper of doubt
I am the hurricane
Every breath of grief
I am the hurricane
Every statement of disbelief
I am the hurricane
I leave you all in my wake

Sign of the cross just before your demise
You're no believer, or have you forgot?
I'm the secret that you won't need to hide

It's too late to ask for help from God

The wind is screaming
It's screaming your name

It sounds like fear
Your death rattle is all that remains
No one will shed a tear

I am a force of nature
Destroy your great design
I am the warning
You will never heed in time

Every whisper of doubt
I am the hurricane
Every breath of grief
I am the hurricane
Every statement of disbelief
I am the hurricane
I leave you all in my wake
I am the hurricane

I am, I am the hurricane
I'm the hurricane
I am, I am the hurricane

I'm the hurricane

Every whisper of doubt

I am the hurricane

Every breath of grief

I am the hurricane

Every statement of disbelief

I am the hurricane

I leave you all in my wake

I am the hurricane
