

Isn't It Time

Dee Snider

As I lie awake at night I wonder
I wonder what you're feeling
Oh oh, oh oh
Are you alone or should I know that answer
But who's heart are you stealing
Oh oh, oh oh

You took my love from me
I tried to play your game
I'll never know why hearts don't grow
But if they did I'm sure your's would stay the same

Isn't it time to stop your dancin'
Isn't it time for you to chance it
Isn't it time, isn't it time

Caught up in your wicked ways you step on
The innocent and needing
Oh oh, oh oh
Yet you laugh and walk away not knowing
That your heart's slowly bleeding
Oh oh, oh oh

In your false reality
You think you'll get away
But in the end those you offend
Are cursing you and soon you will have to pay

Isn't it time to stop your dancin'
Isn't it time for you to chance it
Isn't it time, isn't it time
Isn't it time to make some changes
Isn't it time to turn the pages
Isn't it time, isn't it time

Ooh

Isn't it time

Aw
