

Lies Are a Business

Dee Snider

Bring me to the gates of hell
Cause there's a debt to pay
Bring me all your worthless leaders
Predators will soon be prey

They won't say it, but lies are a business too
It's time to play it, the game has come for me and you
Me and you

Start to walk out on deceit
The truth appears
Sometimes the road less traveled
Is paved with innocent tears

Their greed is never ending
The tide will soon be turning
It's beyond all comprehension
Foundations crumble, the sky is churning

They won't say it, but lies are a business too
It's time to play it, the game has come for me and you
Me and you

They won't say it, but lies are a business too
It's time to play it, the game has come...
They won't say it, but lies are a business too
It's time to play it, the game has come for...
For me and you
