

Prove Me Wrong

Dee Snider

I came, I saw, I rocked
I left it all upon the stage
For almost fifty years
Now it's time to turn the page
I've been abused and used
Been over, under, sideways, down
But still my head's unbowed
Was there ever any doubt?

So now it's time to move on (time to move on)
I gave 'em more than I got (and left you waiting)
They never stopped me for long (they never stopped me)
How they tried, but couldn't prove me wrong
Yeah!

The best revenge is none
Just be happy and live well
Knowing for your enemies
There is a special place in hell
No one could hold me back
Those who tried, I laid to waste
Now as they fade to black
Their salty tears are all I taste

And now I'm gonna move on
They had every chance to prove me wrong
I wish they just would move on
They had every chance to prove me wrong

They had every chance to prove me wrong
They had every chance to prove me wrong

So now it's time to move on (time to move on)
I gave 'em more than I got (and left you waiting)
They never stopped me for long (they never stopped me)
How they tried, but couldn't prove me wrong
Right!

So now I've got to move on
I gave you every chance to prove me wrong

And now I've got to move on (time to move on)
I gave you more than I got (and left you waiting)
You couldn't stop me for long (they never stopped me)
How you tried, but couldn't prove me wrong

And now I'm gonna move on (it's time to move on)
I gave you more than I got (and left you waiting)
You never stopped me for long (you never stopped me)
How you tried, but couldn't prove me wrong (prove me wrong)
