

Silent Battles

Dee Snider

I was told of the hand you were dealt
Every struggle, all the shame you felt
If I could I would wash it all away, away
In your war no canons roar, no fields lay strewn with dead
A struggle of one, so alone, a conflict without end
And I know what those thoughts can stir
Searching for your truth

Fighting silent battles
By day and every night
Fighting silent battles
With no wounds in sight
Fighting silent battles
The war some must go through
Now let us be guided
Guided by the truth

As the dawn breaks upon this shore
Army of one, no flags, no guns
Rising bravely to face this new day with hope
Some kneel down with solemn pause
That resonates and cuts through the noise, we hear
Inside the minds of those still fighting, still fighting
And I know what those thoughts can stir
Searching for your truth

Fighting silent battles
By day and every night
Fighting silent battles
With no wounds in sight
Fighting silent battles
A storm you can live through
I trust you will be guided
Guided by the truth

You hear me now
You hear me now
This fight goes on, it can be won
It can be done
This war can be won

You hear me now
You hear me now
This war can be won
It can be done
This war can be won

Fighting silent battles
By day and every night
Fighting silent battles
With no wounds in sight
May peace be there with you
Now that you've been guided
