

The Reckoning

Dee Snider

It's all for nothing
What did you hope to do?
You gave what little you had
But now I'm here for you
You didn't think it through
No, you don't have a clue
You're tired, I'm wired
And ready to light this fuse

Your reckoning
Is here
There's nothing that you can do
You're living
In fear
You'll never know what hit you

Oh, you should go
But where to hide?
When there's no time
I'm right behind you

And now the life you lived
Becomes the life you lose
If you had it all again
Would it be the life you choose?

Your reckoning
Is here
There's nothing that you can do
You're living
In fear
You'll never know what hit you

Oh, you should go
But where to hide?
When there's no time
I'm right behind you

Oh, you should go
But where to hide?
When there's no time
I'm right beside you

Nothing, nothing
Nothing, nothing
Nothing you can do
Nothing, nothing
Nothing, nothing
Your reckoning is here
Nothing, nothing
Nothing, nothing
Nothing you can do
Nothing, nothing
Nothing, nothing
I'm ready to light this fuse

Oh, you should go

But where to hide?
When there's no time
I'm right behind you

Oh, you should go
But where to hide?
'Cause there's no time
No time
Your reckoning is here
