

Porter Square

Deep Blue Something

Remember when
It was porter square station
And overcast days
When will it snow?
Or is it rain?

Fighting off the nightmares that never fade

And we pretend
And hold on to reason once again
Following the seasons
And then
Running from the ending
And then it ends

Fall in
We fall in
Patterns of habitual callings
Fall in
Fallin'

And we will try
Waiting for the moments to arrive
When will we survive?
Waiting for the dancers

'Cause I know
She will have the answers
If only to prove we were right

And I'm falling
Fall in
Fall in
Patterns of habitual callings
Fall in Fallin'

Fall in
Fall in

Remember when
Fall in

Remember when
It was porter square station
And overcast days
