

Dig your hands into the soil
Throw the seeds and let them grow
Greedy vultures always stealing from you
See the rich and see the poor See the rise and see the fall
Greedy vultures always stealing from you

Screaming like an animal
giving up the principles, urging to be free.
Breaking up the barriers, fight the parasites until they set you free.

Dig your hands into the soil
Throw the seeds and let them grow
Greedy vultures always stealing from you

Screaming like an animal
giving up the principles, urging to be free.
Screaming like an animal,
such a parasite, until they set you free.
