

I'll Catch You

Deep Purple

I guess that it's to be expected
When I have to talk this way
When I have to speak in tongues
I want to say what can't be said

I have to keep a straight face
When I'm breaking up inside
If you know who, knew what I thought
Then we'd both be crucified

I dream about you every night
But you're just beyond my reach
So now you never know my touch
And we shall never meet

Mother nature's keeping her socks on
Father time's gonna be late
Ships at night are passing silently
And our love will have to wait

My bags are always ready
My keys are in the car
Anytime you want to jump
I'll catch you in my arms

Yes, I'll catch you in my arms
I'll catch you in my arms
Anytime, anytime, anytime you want to jump
I'll catch you in my arms
