

Sharp Shooter

Deep Purple

You're just another sharp shooter, got your finger on the trigger
You're aiming at this big head of mine
And from there you can't miss, the only trouble is I have to put you, put you in line

Take a shot in the dark, oh yeah
It's just a walk in the park

Oh, you're my baby-
faced assassin with your weapons of seduction
You'll get me sooner or not
And there's a lot gone before you
I can certainly assure you
Your hand's too shaky for the job
Oh yeah

Take a shot in the dark
It's just a walk in the park

My hands behind my back
Unarmed, we're face to face
You won't get a second chance
I got friends in low places

You got your mind on other things
Wonderin' where to place your skills
I'm your man in case you're wondering
Oh, go ahead, go for the kill

And take a shot in the dark
It's just a walk in the park

I'm an old bushwhacker
Yodelling up the canyon
I'll getcha, you better believe
Behaving with abandon, got some tricks of my own
I'll keep them hid up my sleeve

So take a shot in the dark
It's just a walk in the park
Take a shot in the dark
It's just a walk in the park
Oh yeah
