Dreams

Deepfield

All this emptiness inside of me Nothing left to believe All that's left I am receiving in vain There's nothing left to give

I want to tell you about my dreams and You don't know the half of me And there's nothing left to save me now Nothing to save me now

Give me something I can die for All this hope and none for me All that's left I am receiving in vain

I want to tell you about my dreams and You don't know the half of me

And there's nothing left to save me now Nothing to save me now Nothing to save me now
