

Give Until It Hurts

Deepfield

We've been burned by the sun
Take away the sin of the world
We've been covered in mud
Three-eyed pigs are feeding and vultures are circling

Holy roller roll
Have you come to save my soul?
Hallelujah, amen, yeah

You can buy your forgiveness
You can sell that same old lie
Clean the slate, come on and pass that plate
To the big bank in the sky

You can buy your forgiveness
You can build that steeple high
You can wash that sin up off of your skin
But you're still neck deep in lies

Can I get an amen?

We've been coming undone
Swimming in a sea of despair
Bleed, will you give until it hurts?
Heaven's just a dollar away now in the back of your mind

Holy roller, roll
Have you come to save my soul?
Hallelujah, amen, yeah

You can buy your forgiveness
You can sell that same old lie
Clean the slate, come on and pass that plate

To the big bank in the sky

You can buy your forgiveness
You can build that steeple high
You can wash that sin up off of your skin
But you're still neck deep in lies

Hallelujah amen
Hallelujah amen

Jesus freak on the TV speak
About a world that's come undone
Holds his hand out on a poor man's head
Singing give me that money, son

You can buy your forgiveness
You can build that steeple high
You can wash that sin up off of your skin
But you're still neck deep in lies

You can buy your forgiveness
You can sell that same old lie
Clean the slate, come on and pass that plate

To the big bank in the sky

You can buy your forgiveness
You can build that steeple high
You can wash that sin up off of your skin
But you're still neck deep in lies

Can I get an amen?
