

Disgrace

Deer Tick

I had a dream that you were back
Full of sex and betrayal
Not that you'd know about it, anyway

Unless I mentioned it to you
In the moment I was changed
After waking up
Before the shame all fades away

Don't let your disgrace go free
Just use your enemy
Don't let your disgrace go free

Woo, hoo, hoo

And all the choices you have made
That may have left you changed
Your companion, your regret stays the same
But now we're ripping up the road
With a charming sense of strength
Now that I see
That the holes demand the faith

Don't let your disgrace go free
Just use your enemy
Don't let your disgrace go free

Woo, hoo, hoo

If pain is a hanger on
I want to feel sad and strong
I've got to be moving on
I've got no time to waste

Don't let your disgrace go free
Just use your enemy
Don't let your disgrace go free

Woo, hoo, hoo

Don't let your disgrace go free
Just use your enemy
Don't let your disgrace go free
Woo, hoo, hoo
