

Goodbyes

Deer Tick

I never thought I'd get the chance to tell you what was on my mind
There's so much more to say so in a way I guess I was right
Goodbyes are hard to say
Yes, goodbyes are hard to get right
Goodbyes are all the same to me

The passing days they move so fast and turn to the slowly passing nights
I close my eyes, I see your face, I hear your voice, I can't put out the light
C'mon, this ain't working for me
Yeah, c'mon, this ain't working for you
We can't hold on forever with other lives to lead

Them goodbyes are hard to get right
So goodbye to fighting this fight
And talking to thin air
And wishing that you'll hear
You're so far from me
That's how it will be

Goodbyes are hard to say
Yes, goodbyes are hard to get right
Goodbyes are all the same to me

Goodbyes are hard to get right
So goodbye to fighting this fight
And talking to thin air
And wishing that you'll hear
You're so far from me
That's how it will be

I never thought I'd get the chance to tell you what was on my mind
There's so much more to say so in a way I guess I was right
