Deerhoof

Nothing you can do can stop me, falling
Nothing you can do can stop me, falling
Nothing you can do can stop me

And the question of hit and run, falling
And the question of hit and run, falling
And the question of hit and run, falling

Nothing you can do can stop me, falling
Nothing you can do can stop me, falling
Nothing you can do can stop me

And the question of hit and run, falling
And the question of hit and run, falling
And the question of hit and run, falling

No more, no more
No more, no more
No more, no more

Christmas is flowing
Careful with your dream
Don't scream

Nothing you can do can stop me, falling
Nothing you can do can stop me, falling
Nothing you can do can stop me

And the question of hit and run, falling
And the question of hit and run, falling

No more, no more
No more, no more
No more, no more

Christmas is flowing
Careful with your dream
Don't scream
Christmas is flowing
Careful with your dream
Don't scream

Onto wasting it for you
Onto wasting it for you

Nothing you can do can stop me, falling
