

I Did Crimes Behind Your Eyelids

Deerhoof

There's an ocean behind your eyelids
There's an ocean behind your eyelids
And a found fiction before them
An ocean behind your eyelids
There's an ocean behind your eyelids
And you

Dancing keys
[?] align themselves
Again, sent them in
We'd like to convey

Can you give yourself to an idea?
To kneel before us, kneel before us
[?] where and whose
Brought to our new worlds

There's an ocean behind your eyelids
There's an ocean behind your eyelids
And a damned truth deplores them

Can you give yourself to an idea?
To kneel before us, kneel before us
[?] where and whose
Brought to our new...

Worlds behind your eyelids
There are worlds behind your eyelids
