

Kokoye

Deerhoof

They are thousands
And thousands, and thousands, and beyond the thousands
They are thousands
And thousands, and thousands, and beyond the thousands
They have gone down the flood
They have seen it all

The green, the next, the green is greener
Could be a trap, who knows?
The green, the next, the green is greener
Could be a trap, who knows?
The green, the next, the green is greener
Could be a trap, who knows?
The green, the next, the green

Time travel
Rainbow cartel
Chocolate bed
Say kokoye
Time travel
Rainbow cartel
Chocolate bed
Say kokoye

Where will we end
Time to say, "Ay
Sky will be red
If we don't end"
Where will we end
Time to say, "Ay
Sky will be red
If we don't end"

The green, the next, the green is greener
Could be a trap, who knows?
The green, the next, the green is greener
Could be a trap, who knows?
The green, the mix, the green is greener
Could be a trap, who knows?
The green, the next, the green is greener
Could be a trap, who knows?

Shadow against the sky
You will see golden town
We jump up and down
Shadow against the sky
You will see golden town
We jump up and down
Shadow against the sky
You will see golden town
We jump up and down
Shadow against the sky
You will see golden town
We jump up and down
Shadow against the sky
You will see golden town
We jump up and down
Shadow against the sky
You will see golden town
We jump up and down
