Scream Team

Deerhoof

Guiding you, a voice is coming from behind the stage
Finding you, a voice is found on a missing page
Winding through, a plot controller from another age!

Pulling the cord of mystery
Cheating a clock
Meeting a team from history

A stranger's face is seen
But was he on our team?
The lights go out and everybody screamed
"Team!"
A friend who was a foe
The quarter whistle is about to blow
Then I go

Tunnel under, tunnel underground
Enter sideways, reaching all around
In the darkness I will not be found

Invisible people doing the wave
Invisible people doing the wave
