

Behind Bars

Deez Nuts

I was warned this is a slippery fuckin' slope,
But I climb that hill again and again, never come down though.
The repercussions, shit they ain't nothin'
And I'll do whatever it takes to keep numbin'
Myself from all that shit that turns my stomach.
That shit that twists my brain till I gotta shut off from it.
All the evil in the world takes its toll,
I'll face it all tomorrow I swear.

Today just let me do this one more time.

The walls are closin' in.
The air's ripped from my lungs.
My mind it freezes up.
The words elude my tongue.
Just give me one more time.

The walls are closin' in.
The air's ripped from my lungs.
My mind it freezes up.
The words elude my tongue.
The light is too bright
Exposes all my scars,
Only place to escape
Is right behind these bars.

All I need
All I need is one more time.
