Fast path is a straight line
The hard way littered with the things they'll never find
Never follow suit, we raise the bar
You gotta break the mold, if you wanna set the standard high
If you looking for the ones who fugazi as f*ck
They're a dime a bakers dozen so I guess your in luck

Spit barbs with a sharp tongue
There ain't nothin' nothin' I won't speak on Find freedom in this medium
I'll never let 'em never let 'em put their chains on Break out, break out, break out
Let em know who you are
Set the standard, raise the bar
Break the mold let 'em know who you are
Break the mold let 'em know who you are
Know who you are
