

Give 'em Hell

Deez Nuts

Take a look into my eyes

Take a look into my eyes
Tell me what you see inside
A saviour, or the devil in disguise?
A king who wants for nothing
Or your dog that's on the grind
A deadbeat dad or the apple of my daughter's eye

What are you afraid of now?

Truth is, do the math, we can settle the score
Give 'em hell, quick to dead the bull like a matador
Ain't no way in hell I'ma let these pussies lay the law
Ain't no way to tell who the fuck is really real with me anymore

Opinions don't shape me
So love me or hate me

Opinions don't shape me
So love me or hate me
Irony is, hate keeps you relevant, crazy
I ain't nothin' like you fuckin' fugazi's
Shit, you gotta be crazy

Take a look into my eyes
Now tell me why you waste all that energy?
Praise or judgement, ally or enemy
Turn to the mirror, what really makes us different?
The fact is, your answer's not for me to question, now is it?

Truth is, do the math, we can settle the score
Give 'em hell, quick to dead the bull like a matador
