

Why you try so hard to break
A leg with every f*ckin' step you take
I've got the remedy
All I've gotta do is jog your f*ckin' memory
Why you try so hard to prove
Yourself I know what we've been through
I've got the remedy
Remember that I'm not the enemy
Try so hard to tempt fate
With every single move you make
I've got the remedy
All I've gotta do is jog your f*ckin' memory
Why you try so hard to prove
Yourself I know what we've been through
I've got the remedy, remember

Go dig that ditch
But know your limits I won't bury this
Chose battles
Wisely, this war is something I'm feeling to win
Do what you wish
And count how many f*cks I do not give
Chose battles
Wisely, this war is something I'm feeling to win

Why you try so hard to break
A leg with every f*ckin' step you take

I've got the remedy
All I've gotta do is jog your f*ckin' memory
Why you try so hard to prove
Yourself I know what we've been through
I've got the remedy
Remember, remember that I'm not the enemy
Try so hard to tempt fate
With every single move you make
I've got the remedy
All I've gotta do is jog your f*ckin' memory
Why you try so hard to prove
Yourself I know what we've been through
I've got the remedy, remember
Remember

Go dig that ditch
But know your limits I won't bury this
Chose battles
Wisely, this war is something I'm feeling to win. I'm feeling to win
Do what you wish
And count how many f*cks I do not give
Chose battles
Wisely, this war is something I'm feeling to win. I'm feeling to win
