Deez Nuts

I got a question
I got a question

I got a question, is it cause for concern?
If I don't really care if tomorrow never comes
Death and taxes, merely distractions
You're DOA already if they dictate your actions

Fuck the score, run it back
I'm cleanin' up, playin' dirtier than the next
Five bullets, I'll still get the empty barrel
God's favourite son, shakin' hands with the devil
Singing, "Fuck you one more time"
Fuck you one more time, killing them with a smile
I got a question

Russian roulette
Are the rules hard to follow?
Nah, luck's on your side
Or your minds, on your collar
Payments due on the time borrowed
Numbers up like you just won the motherfuckin' lotto
Russian roulette

On your minds, on your collar

Singing, "Fuck you one more time"
Fuck you one more time, killing them with a smile

I'm supreme, you're superfluous
I breathe life in it before I murder shit
You move through life without purpose
I'm supreme, you're superfluous
I breathe life in it before I murder shit
Shit, it don't matter
I'm supreme, you're superfluous

Fuck the score, run it back
I'm cleanin' up, playin' dirtier than the next
Five bullets, I'll still get the empty barrel
God's favourite son, shakin' hands with the devil
