

We Belong

Def Leppard

Sometimes I feel I don't belong here
Sometimes I just don't feel

I feel so uninvited
A wound that never heals

I need a little shelter
Just for a little while

Sometimes I hide the sadness
Behind a painted smile

If you cast the first stone
I will roll it away
I will kneel at your throne
Hold my hands up and pray
I will hold back the tide
Push the oceans aside
Save the day
But I can be stronger

You're all that I am
You're all that I see
The keys to the kingdom
Are waiting for me
So don't hold me back
Don't hold me down
Just hold me and don't let go
You're all that I am
You're all that I do
The end of the rainbow
Is waiting for you
So tell me I'm right
Cause this can't move on
Not if we belong

Whatever happened to forgiveness
Are the words too hard to say

What happened to the answers
They disappeared along the way

I hide behind the madness
Still looking for the clues

And there's nothing left to chance

And the voice in my head
Screams the words I believe
And the light in the dark
Is the air that I breathe

You're all that I am
You're all that I see
The keys to the kingdom

So don't hold me back
You're all that I am
You're all that I do
Is waiting for you
So tell me I'm right
Back where we belong

As you cast the first stone
And I roll it away
And I kneel at your throne
These words that I say

You're all that I am
You're all that I see
Are waiting for me
Don't hold me down
You're all that I am
You're all that I do
The end of the rainbow
Is waiting for you
So tell me I'm right
Cause this can't be wrong
Not if we belong

The keys to the kingdom
