

Help me, I am submerged in the ocean's abyss
I gasp for breath as my lungs are filled
Crashing waves into my chest
They're drowning me out, they're drowning me out

Did I pull you under or did I push you down
To the place where the stricken dwell?

I can't alleviate this feeling, don't know what to believe in
Don't tell me I'll be fine when there's no hidden meaning
Written in between the lines

Help me, I can't see and I'm struggling
Blind in my efforts to get underneath
The armor you wear, didn't have that before
You hide away now that I need you more

Give me a reason to see past the guise
Is there really more than meets the eye?

I can't alleviate this feeling, don't know what to believe in
Don't tell me I'll be fine when there's no hidden meaning
Written in between the lines

We got lost in the stars
The weightlessness pulled us apart
Back to the solitary corners of our mind
Where we used to live

We got lost in the stars
The weightlessness pulled us apart
Back to the solitary corners of our mind
Where we used to live

I can't alleviate this feeling and what do I believe in?
When there's no hidden meaning, written in between the lines

I can't alleviate this feeling, don't know what to believe in
Don't tell me I'll be fine when there's no hidden meaning
Written in between the lines

Between the lines
