

Ego (Maniac)

Defences

Am I any good at this?
I've been doubting myself again
Should I be more poetic?
Or stay realistic
I got myself thinking

Is there any point of it?
All these great whites
I'm a little fish and I
Can't help but be in my own head
It's just where I live
It's just where she lives

Pierced the skin
Creeping in
Feel the curse
Closing in
Like a secret you wish you'd never kept
Leaving you
Colder, looking over your shoulder
Coarser, edges are rough
Part of you you wish you'd never met
But you ain't seen nothing yet

No you ain't seen nothing yet

You always look away
Overcome by the truth you're facing
In the dark I'll stay
Always waiting, waiting in shadowlight

Pierced the skin
Creeping in
Feel the curse closing in
Like a secret you wish you'd never kept
Leaving you
Colder, looking over your shoulder
Coarser, edges are rough
Part of you you wish you'd never met
But you ain't seen nothing yet

No you ain't seen nothing yet
No you ain't seen nothing yet

No escape, I'm making you take
No escape, I'm making you take
No escape, I'm making you take
A look in the mirror to face your mistake
No escape

Pierced the skin
Creeping in
Feel the curse
Closing in
Leaving you

Coarser, edges are rough
