

Greatness

Defences

Everything ends
This is temporary
And no condition is permanent
Are you hearing me?
Life is fleeting
And this life we see
Is such a tiny speck in the grand scheme
Momentary
Gone in a heartbeat

The most freeing thing you could hear
Holds the weight of your world in the same ear
Nothing is permanent
This too shall pass
And we can't get it back

Why have I never got this before?
Why have I been so heavy?
The change is coming, ready or not
Be present
It's all that you've got

The most freeing thing you could hear
Holds the weight of your world in the same ear
Nothing is permanent
This too shall pass
And we can't get it back

This too shall pass
Live for now
Can't get it back
This too shall pass
Live for now
Can't get it back

This too shall pass
Live for now
Cause there's no turning back

The most freeing thing you could hear
Holds the weight of your world
The weight of your world

The most freeing thing you could hear
Holds the weight of your world in the same ear
Nothing is permanent
This too shall pass
And we can't get it back

Can't get it back
