

In The Black

Defences

Take what you want from me
You took everything
Everything worth taking
Pay for the larceny
Look what it's done to me
Look what it's done to me

I'm left with the memory
Of what will never be
I block it out but I see the cloud making its way to me
And I'm ready for rain
And I feel it again
A stab in my back
Left me in the black

Just like you know you are

Count backwards from ten
Back to the start where I let you in
Already consumed by so much loss
Had to escape it at any cost
Where do I even begin?

I'm left with the memory
Of what will never be
I block it out but I see the cloud making its way to me
And I'm ready for rain
And I feel it again
A stab in my back

Just like you know you are

I've got a confession
I haven't lost everything
Haven't lost, I haven't lost, I haven't lost
I've got a confession
I haven't lost everything

This is my confession
I haven't lost everything
As low as I get
There still a glimpse of hope
That gets me back up again

As much as I feel like there's nothing left
Something much bigger than me gives me breath
Into the unknown, I'll carry on

I'm left with the memory
Of what will never be
I block it out but I see the cloud making its way to me
And I'm ready for rain
And I feel it again

I'm ready for rain (I'm ready for rain)
I'm ready for rain (And I'm ready for rain)
And I'm ready for rain
And I feel it again
