

Ocean Floor

Defences

Was it worth it in the end?
Did it do you good to let them in?
We connect with other souls
So we feel less alone
But my signal has gone

Oh, I'm afraid I don't know where I'm going
Hold my hand, don't let me fall away
Don't let me fall away

This cycle never ends
I'm waiting for my life to begin
Why can't I recognise?
Each day slipped by is wasted time
Before we see our final night
Why can't I recognise
That this is my life?

How many days spent staring at these walls?
Watching a view seen a thousand times before
We were meant for so much more
And I don't know why I see the world through movie eyes
But I'm still alive

We don't know when we'll take our last breath
A day I dread, more than anything else
Help me remember to forget

Pretend it isn't happening
Well who are you trying to kid?
Hold on to reality
Search the soul for the truth it holds

This cycle never ends
This cycle never ends
I'm waiting for my life to begin
Life to begin
Why can't I recognise?
Each day slipped by is wasted time
Before we see our final night
Why can't I recognise
That this is my life?

Oh, I'm afraid I don't know where I'm going
Hold my hand, don't let me fall away, away
Oh, I'm afraid I don't know where I'm going
Hold my hand, don't let me fall away

I'm afraid I don't know where I'm going
Hold my hand, don't let me fall away
Fall away, fall away
Let me fall
Don't let me fall away
Let me fall
Don't let me fall away
Let me fall
Don't let me fall away

Don't let me fall

This cycle never ends
I'm waiting for my life to begin
Why can't I recognise
That this is my...
