Headless

Deftones

I think it's obvious we are a mess, we cut against the grain
It's contagious how we live
If you're curious of the valiance I can show you, wait

'Cause I forget all of this is obvious
We're entirely insane, they claim
They wanna climb into our brain waves

I know you're wondering how the two of us, we adapt these trait s
I can't teach you how we play
And you're curious how the brilliance controls you, wait

'Cause I forget all of this is obvious
We're entirely insane, they claim
Yet they'd like to violate our brain waves

You seek desire, our desire
Oh, your attempt is useless
Oh, your attempt is useless

We sway from the top of the ledge
We swim in a bottomless lake
It's true

We are entirely insane, we'd claim
And you'd like to dive into our brain waves

You seek desire (someday) our desire
Real desire, true desire
Oh, your attempt is useless
Oh, your attempt is useless
