

Hey angel, consider your position
Framed to be consumed
Savory, savoring your sympathy

Hey angel, fly over and bless me
See you feign surprise
Yeah, I'm all eyes and you're all you need to be

Hey angel , whatever position
We consider fit
To put you in, you'll protest your complicity

Easy now
One hand will wash the other
One hand will wash the other

Hey angel, fly over and bless me
See you feign surprise
And I'm all eyes and where are we?
He tell me, he tell me, he tell me

Easy now
One hand will wash the other
One hand will wash the other
