

The Final Judgment

Degradead

Grace denied, a lifeform ceases to exist
Kneel down before me, your life is through

Prepare for the final judgement, your time is now

Feel afraid, we all have been there before
Know that you owe us, the faith in fear

It's like it all, has never, been clear, the primal
fear

No, forever, lie buried in, a primal fear

Prepare for the final judgement, your time is now

Come below, a sense of hope you might feel
One thing you might know, your godgiven right to shed
fear

Prepare for the final judgement, your time is now

It's like it all, has never, been clear, the primal
fear

No, forever, lie buried in, a primal fear

Give in, to your anger

Give in, to your hate

Give in, to your senses

Give in, to your fear, to your fear

Realize, the anger folds, after we, poccus control

Prepare for the final judgement, your time is now

It's like it all, has never, been clear, the primal
fear

No, forever, lie buried in, a primal fear
