

Drip Drop

Dehd

Who knows just where it all starts
The fourth or the fifth?
The bottom, the drop?
You don't see it at all
We're different apart
But better as one

I'm always leaving
It's up to timing
I'm always leaving
If you find out there's hope to find

Who knows if she'll change her mind
It only works when you decide
When it comes to mistakes
More than a few come to mind
But I'm here for the day
Gonna stay through the night

I'm always leaving
It's up to timing
I'm always leaving
If you find out there's hope to find

Always fine, but that don't make it right
If you find out, I'll get along
Always right, but that don't mean it's fine
