

Knife

Dehd

I was a right hook, and I hit it
Like a knife fight, I came with it
And the stars above, they were spinning
How does it feel my love, to be in it?

You're on the defense, now I get it
And like lightning, yeah, I lit it
Without fighting, you've accepted
You're the only one who can keep it

My heart belongs to one
And that one is only you
I'll never love again
It just has to be you, it just has to

My heart belongs to one
And that one is only you
I'll never love again
It just has to be you, it just has to

As below, so above it
I was an angel for you to covet
And all them rules don't apply to me
I'm so sick of men telling me how to be

I laughed, and I smiled, and I played it sweet
But now I kill you in my sleep
It's a matter of time, and I'll be free
You're outdated
You mean nothing

My heart belongs to one
And that one is only you
I'll never love again
It just has to be you, it has to

My heart belongs to one
And that one is only you
I'll never love again
It just has to be you, it just has to
