

So Good

Dehd

Watching you through dark shades
You're the one I think I want, yeah
The violence inside you don't scare me
Excited to touch you, to know you
And maybe to love you
You call me, we're talking
I ain't sleeping, I'm dreaming

Is this what I've wanted?
Ooh, I've been waiting, I've been so good

This can't be happening
I'm so fucked up and messy
I'm bad at this love thing
You'll probably mean nothing
I can't help but hoping
That my heart is kinda open
I got here by trusting
And trying to be better

Is this what I've wanted?
Ooh, I've been waiting, I've been so good
Is this what I've wanted?
Ooh, I've been waiting, I've been so good

I've been good, I've been good
I've been good, think that we could
Make it up, take it slow
If it's meant to be, we'll know
I've been good, I've been good
I've been good, think that we could
Make it up as we go
Yeah, I'm in the mood for love
