

Banished By Sin

Deicide

Destined to darkness for what I believe
Sins of the devil empowering me
Holy excision that can't be explained
Burned by religion, I do not expect to be saved
Enslaved

Everything evil that lives in my heart
Banish my soul as I'll tear yours apart
Haunted by silence for what I perceive
Ghosted again by your god that has never been seen
Obscene

Wasting and rotting and waiting on death
Why in the world would I ever confess to your god?

He's dead, never around, trinity bleed
Hang on the cross of defeat
Last breath, father of lies, suffer again
Banished by sin
Screaming and burning and badgering god
Never know rest, and can never move on from this hell
In death, heaven above, never to be
Outside the realm of belief
Unblessed, evil inside, suffer again
Banished by sin

You are the reason for all of my rage
Up against nothing, unmoved by your faith
Lies and assumption, forever in doubt
Don't wait for me, I will never believe in your god
And rot

Wasting and rotting and waiting on death
Why in the world would I ever confess to your god?

He's dead, never around, trinity bleed
Hang on the cross of defeat
Last breath, father of lies, suffer again
Banished by sin
Here in death, heaven above, never to be
Outside the realm of belief
Unblessed, evil inside, suffer again
Banished by sin
