Repent to Die

Pathetic lives, every second someone dies Delightful is the sight of repention No destiny, just a certainty of death In pain inducing lies of salvation Never repent....

Born to be dead Repent to die Ignorance looms in the unconscious mind Born to be dead Repent to die Waste your last breath on the lord Jesus Christ

Repent to die

Afraid of what lies after death Your screams are unheard to Him Resisting your wake of adorn Your pleading falls deaf on your lord

"Go fuck your god" will be my final words To die is just the concept of living To be Forgave, salvation blessed with pain Endeavored is the blame of creation
