

Bells of Another Land

Deine Lakaïen

Why do I have to leave I just cannot say someone's calling me from so far away

Sometimes I hear
the bells of another land

When I came I was dreaming dreams of a everlasting sun raised my hands for peace words of love on my tongue

Sometimes I hear...

The more that I was falling the more I felt the light warmed my empty body in an endless night

Sometimes I hear...

So I went into my garden watched the flowers grow laid myself on the warm grass and death came very slow

Sometimes I hear...
