

Gone

Deine Lakaian

Try to clean up the hazy window that got steamed up Try to call you and I knew too well you couldn't hear me And I knew too we ll you couldn't see me

(Chorus:) You left the platform in an opposite direction I miss ed again any word of affection And where the railsÿ end there i s no more denying And when the sun dies there is no more denyin g

Oh my love, now the days are gone. Oh my love, we've been waiti ng too long. Whatever road to take I'll hesitate and Although f ar too late we'll try to wait and The word frozen on my lips an d the bloom closes its open clacks and

(Chorus:) You left the platform in an opposite direction I miss ed again any word of affection And where the railsÿ end there i s no more denying And when the sun dies there is no more denyin
g

Oh my love, we've been waiting far too long Oh myÿ love, we've been waiting far too long Oh my love, now the days are gone.

(Chorus:) You left the platform in an opposite direction I miss ed again any word of affection And where the railsÿ end there i s no more denying And when the sun dies there is no more denyin
g

been waiting far too long Oh my love, now the days are gone.
