

Kasmodiah

Deine Lakaien

In a cold night of a winter day
A secret smell tries to reach for you
You can't but fall for him in this night
In the blue room he will lie

He told you that he will stay
And bring all lost pearls
He will let you watch undress
And you would die for less

In your head tonight
You keep out of sight
Warning fools from outside
Now life needs no guide
Then the voice begins
It's the time of your life
Can't control your highs
And wasted are all my fights

He told you that he will stay
And sing for you songs from heaven
He will let you watch undress
And you would die for less
