

A Misleading Scenario

Deinonychus

"Hello", I said to my last life. Buried my flesh; withered and captured in the earth's vault. The fragrance of my perfume does n't matter anymore; life is no more, it's useless this all. Now , I'm Israfiel. Walk through me... The rain are my tears, soaking the earth... Hollow are my eyes. Judas said; "A heart never dies"... Why I don't bleed inside anymore, is it really true that am I no more? Pain vessels me to my seat, and you said; "I would die for you". I have spoken all your words as you taught me, and I believed them all! Now, all you did was say: "I would die for you".
