

My Time

Deitrick Haddon

It's my time
It's my time

Ooh this is my time
Yeah this is my time
Woah this is my time
Moving forward but I ain't gon press rewind
Ooh this is my time
Yeah this is my time
Woah this is my time
The future looks so bright
Ooh this is my time
Yeah this is my time
Woah this is my time
Moving forward but I ain't gon press rewind
Ooh this is my time
Yeah this is my time
Woah this is my time
The future looks so bright

Got a lot on my mind but not enough time here I go
I believe you'e gonna win the fight because you got a heart of a hero
When you've been through the fire you're coming out as pure gold
Now it's time to be rewarded because ya been before

It's my time
Moving forward but I ain't gon press rewind
The past is gone but I'm leaving it all behind
Finally now I can see the sunshine
Life is getting better as the day goes by
Gotta wear shades cause the future so bright

Ooh this is my time
Yeah this is my time
Woah this is my time
Moving forward but I ain't gon press rewind
Ooh this is my time
Yeah this is my time
Woah this is my time
The future looks so bright

Here I go with the second verse, I'm flowing this is not rehearsed
Another tree planted with a tree planted in some dirt
Take it from me if you messed up you can get up and break every curse
And look at me now got a new life only this time I come first

It's my time
Moving forward but I ain't gon press rewind
The past is gone but I'm leaving it all behind
Finally now I can see the sunshine
Life is getting better as the day goes by
Gotta wear shades cause the future so bright

Ooh this is my time
Yeah this is my time
Woah this is my time
The future looks so bright

Ooh this is my time
Yeah this is my time
Woah this is my time
The future looks so bright
Ooh this is my time
Yeah this is my time
Woah this is my time
The future looks so bright
Ooh this is my time
Yeah this is my time
Woah this is my time
The future looks so bright

Ooh
Yeah
Woah
The future looks so bright
Ooh
Yeah
Woah
