

Sick World

Deitrick Haddon

We're living in a sick world
I know you heard me
And we can't stand to lose nobody else

I'm glad we got 2020 up out the way
I'm praying the future will bring us better days
And it ain't hard to say goodbye to yesterday
'Cause we lost too many soldiers along the way

We lost Chadwick, king of Wakanda
Kobe and Gigi, ooh, we lost a mamba
And we lost family [?] lost her mama
It feel like the whole world is [?]

But I know you watching us from up there
Let your people know you still care
Send your love now to clear the air
Oh, please, Lord, clear the air

Living in a sick world but I'm praying you are well
We can't stand to lose nobody else
Can't stand to lose nobody
Living in a sick world
Asking heaven for a little help
We can't stand to lose nobody else
Can't stand to lose nobody else

We can't stand it
We can't stand it
We can't stand it
Can't stand it, can't stand

[?] killing each other in Chicago
Detroit just ain't the same no more
And it ain't getting better on the west coast
Tell me why we treating each other so cold
People would rather put faith in a vaccine
Then wearing a mask, keeping their hands clean
And this will all go down in history
That thousands have died 'cause we cannot agree, yeah

Living in a sick world but I'm praying you are well
We can't stand to lose nobody else
Can't stand to lose nobody
Living in a sick world
Asking heaven for a little help
We can't stand to lose nobody else
Can't stand to lose nobody else

We can't stand it
We can't stand it
We can't stand it
Can't stand it, can't stand

And every say amen (say amen)
Amen
We can't stand to lose

Nobody else (hallelujah say)
Amen (yeah)
Amen
We can't stand to lose
Nobody else (hallelujah say)

Living in a sick world
Can't stand to lose nobody
Living in a sick world
Can't stand to lose nobody else

We can't stand it (praying for those on the front line)
We can't stand it (whoa, my my my my my)
We can't stand it
We can't stand it
We can't stand it (people all over the world)
We can't stand it (bow your head)
We can't stand it (asking heaven for a little help)
Can't stand to lose, no
