

The Fallen

Deitrick Haddon

Used to be an angel but I'm fallen
I lost my wings now I'm crawling
Do you even hear when I'm calling
How did I become the fallen

Used to be an angel but you're fallen
You don't lost your wings now you're fallen
Don't know if you'll ever get to fly again
How did I become the fallen

Falling down
Falling down
Pick me up when I'm down
Lord help me I'm down
Falling down
Falling down
Don't let me stay down
Lord help me I'm down

Prophets lying with no conviction
People flocking like an addiction
These demons are real man no fiction
Devil just looses with not restrictions
Tell me what's going on with us Christians
Know the truth but you don't listen
Your tradition and religion
Gotta go back to the beginning

Falling down
Falling down
Pick me up when I'm down
Lord help me I'm down
Falling down
Falling down
Don't let me stay down
Lord help me I'm down

Oh I'm need of revival
To feel your spirit is what I need
Oh I've been in denial
It's time for me to break this cycle
I'm tired of dancing with the devil
He's trying to bring me down to hades
Lord I wanna be an angel
Living without you is too painful

Used to be an angel but I'm fallen
I lost my wings now I'm crawling
Do you even hear when I'm calling
How did I become the fallen

Up, Jesus lift me up when I need a little help
Calling on you, lift me up when I need a little help
Up, Jesus lift me up when I need a little help
Calling on you, lift me up when I need a little help
Up, Jesus lift me up when I need a little help
Calling on you, lift me up when I need a little help

Up, Jesus lift me up when I need a little help
Calling on you, lift me up when I need a little help

Up, Jesus lift me up when I need a little help
Calling on you, lift me up when I need a little help
Up, Jesus lift me up when I need a little help
Calling on you, lift me up when I need a little help

Use to be an angels but I'm fallen
I am on my knees and I am calling
I just want my wings so I can fly again
